"Pray At The Moon"

Visit "Pray At The Moon" on MotoLyrics.com

This is your life between ice and fire
This is the time for change and decide
This is the way I am, friend and love
This is my promise, you'll never be hurt

I see you cry in your room
I see you lost and confused
I hear you pray at the moon
As if I had Bells inside my head
Let me save you tonight

I will be your light in the dark
I will be the fire of your heart
I will always be close to you
I will always... always love you

I see you cry in your room
I see you lost and confused
I hear you pray at the moon
As if I had Bells inside my head
Let me save you tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight
