"Beyond The Wall"

I was a slave to you
And never know it
A true believer, I had faith
And bound to it

Was it love or just obsession
To please you I would never question
Your jaded point of view

In a picture perfect world
It all seemed right
But I had to close my mind
To live that life

So afraid to make mistakes
I lived in fear of my own faith
But then I opened up my eyes

Temptation, damnation, salvation
I would risk it all
To know, to go beyond the wall
Unbroken, I'm open
Please make me not afraid to fall
I've gotta know, I've gotta go beyond the wall

In this life of contemplation
There's a real fine line
Between the truth and expectations
You can lose your mind

With every answer comes a question
Gotta find your own direction
You gotta open up your eyes

Temptation, damnation, salvation
I would risk it all
To know, to go beyond the wall
Unbroken, I'm open
Please make me not afraid to fall
I've gotta know, I've gotta go beyond the wall

Sacrifice security
The fantast has died
And I know no one waits for me
On the other side

Temptation, damnation, salvation
I would risk it all
To know, to go beyond the wall
Unbroken, I'm open
Please make me not afraid to fall
I've gotta know, I've gotta go beyond the wall

Temptation, damnation, salvation
I would risk it all
To know, to go beyond the wall
Unbroken, I'm open
Please make me not afraid to fall
I've gotta know, I've gotta go beyond the wall
