Well we met upon a hill,
You know the night was cold,
And the air was kinda still.

All I needed, was to look in her eyes,
No matter what would occur,
I was falling in love with her.

Chorus:
You're all I'm thinking of,
But baby your love's
Under Suspicion.
You're much too confusing,
You never think of losing.
I said oooh-oooh.

She know every way to please me.
Got me weak at the knees,
And I'm coming apart at the seams.

I got a feeling about the future,
And it ain't to good at all,
No not at all.

Chorus:
You're all I'm thinking of,
But baby you love's,
Under Suspicion.
You're much too confusing,
You never think of losing.
I said oooh-oooh.

She's so deceiving,
Got me believing, in things I can't understand.
She's so inviting,
I can't help fighting, it.

Solo

She's so deceiving,
Got me believing, in things I can't understand.

Well her lovin' gives me a thrill,
Every time I think back at
That night upon the hill.

I thought I'd leave her cold, instead,
She left my blood hot and
Rising to my head.

Chorus:
You're all I'm thinking of,
But baby your love's,
Under Suspicion.
You're much too confusing,
You never think of losing.
I said oooh-oooh.
You're much too confusing,
You never think of losing,
I said oooh-oooh.
You're much too confusing,
And I think I'm losing you.
