(Verse 1)

Man I could've been cold, but I was days away.
I should've been bold and not bought into every word you'd say.
I could've been hard and fought like all the rest.
I should've been smart and not reached to comfort you with my best.
But IÃ¢Ä! got sucked in.

(Chorus)

If I'm a jerk, I've been this way since birth.
And it's you that makes you hurt.
I'll make you realize, you realize,
I'm a jerk and I've been this way since birth.
And it's you that makes you hurt.
I'll make you realize, you realize that.

(Verse 2)

So I could've been wrong to offer you my help.
I should've been strong and left you there to handle things yourself.
I could've been gone by a clever some disguise.
I'll be the one you who holds you here and makes you realize.
It's youÃ¢Ä!you suck me in.

(Chorus Twice)

If I'm a jerk, I've been this way since birth.
And it's you that makes you hurt.
I'll make you realize, you realize,
I'm a jerk and I've been this way since birth.
And it's you that makes you hurt.
I'll make you realize, you realize that.
