She said I'm only 17...
But I think I'd like it
I mostly don't know what I need..
I can't quite decide it
They tell me happiness is life..
But I can't find it
And even though I'm 17..
I don't feel like it.

So bring me some joy
it's not allowed in here
Could you fill my void?
Bring me some joy
It's not allowed in here

And though she's only 17
I feel like I could help
With mostly talk of dreams
And what it's like in Hell
She tells me
Happiness is like an empty wishing well
And even though she's 17
You could never tell

So bring me some joy
it's not allowed in here
Could you fill my void?
Bring me some joy
it's not allowed in here
it's not allowed in here

Because your life's not over
You've only made mistakes
You only need to escape
It's lonely being Brave.
