Burn your countries flags Fuck your patriotic pride Fuck the politicians and the shit they try to hide They make you pay their taxes and they make you fight their wars
But they won't feed the hungry and they don't care about the poor Instead they try and take you for all your fucking worth
And they separate with flags all the people of the earth They exploit our different cultures and enhance our sickening greed
And they get the hatred rising which is exactly what they need
But what about the people's needs
Will they be unfulfilled Ane what of those who speak out? Will those "traitors" then be killed?
The only traitors that exist are the traitors to mankind
The ones who put the money first and the people's need behind
They say is we don't love our country then get the hell out Should we be thankful to die in battle for what our flag's about?
Well fuck off
Fuck you Fucking hear this Your ignorant petty support doesn't mean piss Don't support, no matter what the cause Your fucking flags and damn religion just feed corporate claws I renounce my citizenship from the U.S.A. and I'd suggest the same for any country Because countries kill the people's will with their patriotic lie
And every fucking day you're killing who they say and you never even wonder why Why do we blindly follow what our leaders have to say?
Instead let's make them answer to the people they betray We don't owe our leaders anything so fuck what they demand Then disregard their fucking lies and bury them where they stand

The flags will cover coffins where these fuckiers will now lie
And we'll give a flag to their families when these poor bastards die Natonalistic pride is fucking shit why can't the people see
As long as flags fly up above us no one's really free Free?
