I don't think I've ever met anyone like you
I don't think I would have ever wanted to You've caused me so much trouble in my life
I don't think I could've survived

And now you ask me for petals for your tears
Petals for your tears, petals for your tears

But that won't avoid these years

Life without you is so much better
I can clear the clouds and stormy weather
Life without you is so incredible
So incredible, so incredible

Chorus

I am feeling so alive
I am feeling so alive
I am feeling so alive
