You know the system kills,
So you try to take a stance
BOYCOTT
You speak up for the people who will never get their own chance BOYCOTT
But are your views sincere?
Do you practice that what you preach?
BOYCOTT
Or are you just fooling yourself,
The truth just out of your reach?
BOYCOTT
You're helping to enhance the rich while fucking over the poor BOYCOTT
You've heard it all before and you know just what i'm saying
BOYCOTT
You hate these corporate killers but you fucking keep on paying
For the products you don't need
You share with them their fucking greed
And responsibility for those who died
Their exploitation and genocide
All the shit you fucking hate
Too blink to see that you helped create

[Chorus:]

You're the living proof that the system works:
That the system works for them
You spend your hard earned money
And help support their death

Boycott big business because death in the going rate
BOYCOTT
You control who you support so why support what you hate
BOYCOTT
Multi-national companies are hiding under false names
BOYCOTT
To protect themselves from people who are unaware of their games BOYCOTT
So fuck their games and fuck their lies instead just stop and think

BOYCOTT

Is all of their suffering worth your burgers and your softdrinks?

BOYCOTT

When you buy their products you ignore the blood their spilling BOYCOTT

Reject this capitalist system and support the ones their killing BOYCOTT

Fuck convenience in their store

If it's important it's worth fighting for

Don't you see you hold the key

Throw out your fucking apathy

Then start to spread the worth around

And help to bring the companies down

[Chorus]

Our individual effort is where the struggle begins

To stand up and fight for those oppressed by politicians

The companies condition the public thought media bullshit

All of this suffering is inflicted just to turn a fucking profit

They stifle criticism with a cost of living raise

Selling out the working class a million different ways

The power that you give them is how they keep control

Don't support them anymore, it's time to take back what they stole Fuck

the system, fuck it's views, it's the people they abuse

Abuse of power and authority is the downfall of society

But people never seem to listen, they're all brainwashed
by the system

[Chorus]
