(Peter Landin/Kent Larsson)

Here we are, lying naked in the rain
With a love so strong, so impossible to tame.
I fall asleep, knowing you'll be there when I wake
Right beside me, even though I had made mistakes.
We live and we learn, we cry and get burned.
No one can do us harm when we're in each other's arms.

I'll never let you go, I won't lie, I won't cheat by your side.

I'll never let you go, I'm on fire, my heart beats, I'm alive.

Every moment with you, all the times we've been through

I'll never let you go, I'll be right by your side.

Sitting here with the rain in my face
I think of you, baby, in so many ways.
How you move me with the little things you do
When the darkness surrounds me, you're still the one that I run to.

We live and we learn, we toss and we turn.

No one can do us harm when we're in each other's arms.

I'll never let you go, I won't lie, I won't cheat by your side.

I'll never let you go, I'm on fire, my heart beats, I'm alive.

Every moment with you, all the times we've been through

I'll never let you go, I am right by your side.

Oh, I'm always gonna fight for love, it's just another miracle

But I'm so beautiful, I am the one.

I've been looking at every moment with you.

I beg for this to last eternally.

I am looking at all of the times we've been through.
I'll never let you go.

I'll never let you go, I won't lie, I won't cheat by your side.

I'll never let you go, I'm on fire, my heart beats, I'm alive.

Every moment with you, all the times we've been through

I'll never let you go, I am right by your side.

I'll never let you go, I won't lie, I won't cheat by your side.

I'll never let you go, I'm on fire, my heart beats, I'm alive.

Every moment with you, all the times we've been through

I'll never let you go, I am right by your side.

I'll never let you go, I am right by your side.
