Oceans of lava are washing my remains
Needle still buried so deep into my veins
I leave this body all bloated with venom
Falling endlessly as I seek oblivion

Let the poison flow in my mind
Let the light shine again
And I chose to leave you behind
Till the flames rise again
Let the poison flow in my mind
Poison dreams

Phantoms of pleasure and learned agony
Licking from inside everything that was me
Serpents of fire are dancing in my veins
Burning desire consuming my remains

Let the poison flow in my mind
Let the light shine again
And I want to leave you behind

Till the flames burn again
Let the poison flow in my mind
Poison dreams

I am an angel with poison in my wings
My soul devoured, heart bleeding all my sins
Unleashing nightmares, black torrents of venom
Falling endlessly till I find oblivion

Learn how to love what you can't destroy

Till the light rises again
And I need to leave you behind
Till the flames burn again
But I can't leave you behind
Till the flames sear again
Let the poison flow in my mind
Let the flames sear again
Let the poison burn in my mind
