I've been here now for ten years or more,
moving around from suburb to suburb
Looking in the paper, and all I get is cabbie's jobs
Can't seem to settle down, feeling like Houdini slob

Not so happy song for problem children

I've been here now for several months or more,
Moving around from station to station Looking in the paper, I don't mind no honest job, it's only woodchopping
Can't seem to settle down, feeling like I'll never win

Not so happy song for problem children

I've been here now doing nothing for much too long,
Moving around (repo?) to Brownstone I've been Looking in the paper, I don't mind what the paper say
Can't seem to settle down, feeling like I'll run away

Not so happy song for problem children
