Two sisters sighed
Sais we might as well be lovers
Weçf-e so close
Just like blood brothers

And the horse guard died
I lost all power
She said to me
Dis you come down in the shower

Their mother cried
Her religion was faultless
Thought obeyed
She remained unaware of this
And the horse guard...

What am I to do
For a sister like you

Two sisters cried
For their missing brother
Who was found cold but alive
No longer their lover
