Now we've been traveling this road there too far
So with love my best regards
I'm giving you the time and the space
Yes, you need just a little more faith

If you gonna grow then you need to know
When it's time to just let go
As life is too short to pretend
We're in the beginning when it's the end

Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no, it don't
Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no

Now we both know what the problem is
Instead of letting go, tryin' to make it fit
Makin' a fool out of love
Ending up in the same predicament

We gonna grow then we need to know
When it's time to just let go
Life is too short to pretend
We're in the beginning when it's the end

Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no, it don't make no sense
Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no

I trusted you with everything
Gave you, gave you my heart to make you say
You took but never understood my pain
Now I gotta leave you, love 'em on my will

Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no, it don't
Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no

Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no, it don't

Uh, oh, here we go again, trying to make it right
When it don't make sense, no

Said we had so much fun with each other
Can't forget you, oh, no, oh, no, I can't Wishing you joy, happiness, love and tenderness
