Uh huh, hey baby
I think I wanna just rap to ya for a second
'Bout what, 'cuz there's some things we got to change
In order to move forward

Whatchu talking about?
Because I believe in you
You believe in me?
All things are possible

Uh huh, you just chill, stand still Aight, I'm right here
First things first, right

Don't go workin' my nerve over somethin' that you heard
Don't be dissin' my name, 'cuz you slipped up on your game
Don't be makin' me cry, turn around and apologize Stop pretendin' to be somethin' you're not

'Cuz you've got mad issues, and you tend to misuse
Every opportunity to right your wrong
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve
them
Time has come to leave well enough alone

You've got mad issues and you tend to abuse
Every opportunity to make it good
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve
Time has come, and boy I really wish you would

Don't be actin' like you, you've been rich all of your life Don't be breakin' crews, 'cuz you've had it good for sometime
Use a masquerade, and stop blowin' me shame
Stop pretendin' to be somebody you're not

'Cuz you've got mad issues, and you tend to misuse
Every opportunity to right your wrong
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve

Time has come to leave well enough alone

You've got mad issues and you tend to abuse
Every opportunity to make it good
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve
Time has come, and boy I really wish you would

And I never woulda thought you was all about your
Now you got to go to where you came
Confusin' the brain, it's all from the pain
Nothin' to gain, outta my reign, too late to make a change
Don't say my name, don't no no no no

And I never woulda thought you was all about your
Now you got to go to where you came
Confusin' the brain, it's all from the pain
Nothin' to gain, outta my reign, too late to make a
change
Don't say my name, never

Oh, listen, oh

'Cuz you've got mad issues, and you tend to misuse
Every opportunity to right your wrong
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve
Time has come to leave well enough alone

'Cuz you've got mad issues, and you tend to misuse
Every opportunity to right your wrong
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve
Time has come to leave well enough alone

You've got mad issues and you tend to abuse
Every opportunity to make it good
You're causin' more problems with no way to solve
Time has come, and boy I really wish you would
