Take a little love of money, then you keep on

I know it's time for you to settle down
Stop foolin' around
You keep searchin' but you don't know
Whatcha gonna find

I'm tellin' you, life is hard, it's so history
An' every move you make is just gamble
So leave your inhibitions behind
An' gimme your love to handle

Take a bit of my love
My lovin' will give you something
Come on into my life
My lovin' will give you something

I hope you've been bad to give this love a drag
Yes, I do 'cause I've been
Givin' in my everything
On this you can rely

Take a bit of my love
My lovin' will give you something
Come on into my life
My lovin' will give you something

Take a bit of my love
Give you everything

Take a little love of money, then you keep on
You keep on, my lovin' will give you something
Take a little love of money, then you keep on
You keep on, my lovin' will give you something

Take a bit of my love
My lovin' will give you something
Come on into my life
My lovin' will give you something

Take a bit of my love
My lovin' will give you something

Come on into my life
My lovin' will give you something

Take a little love of money, then you keep on
My lovin' will give you something
Take a little love of money, then you keep on
Keep on, my lovin' will give you something

Take a little love of money, then you keep on
My lovin' will give you something
Take a little love of money, then you keep on
Keep on, my lovin' will give you something

Take a little love of money, then you keep on
My lovin' will give you something
Take a little love of money, then you keep on
Keep on, my lovin' will give you something
