if you would just
stay for a while
suga we could find
something to get into
baby boi its on you
if we could just
lay for a while
let me ease your mind
help you to unwind
spend a little quality time

girl i know its getting difficult to sleep at night im gone to work, there's no one there right by your side i called you up to say im coming home in a few days and i would like it if we could just lay and play for a while

if you would just
stay for a while
baby boi its on you
lay for a while
help you to unwind

oh, im missing you so much im making plans for me and you we gon' unplug the phone soon as you get home did i hear ya say you're coming home in a few days baby, i cant wait, i anticipate

baby boi its on you
lay for a while

help you to unwind

oh i, i dont know 'bout you but im in the mood
and i can hardly wait
to love you over and over and over again im keepin' my cool
i got a jones
dont wanna be alone
come home... i dont wanna be alone
