If your cool loving dipped with my loving
We could do something and work it out
It would be so nice my turn I'll just rise

What if my sweet walking walked into your sweet talking
Then we can spot something more dangerous than tidal mind
You gotta take right

The fire time that I met you baby
You know you lit my fire
You lit my fire, you lit my fire
The fire time that I kissed you baby
You know you took me higher
You lit my fire, you lit my fire

And what if your sweet kisses turned me into your Mrs.
One of just 3 wishes to have it all
You would be mine
To love for a lifetime

And what if we re add it in the fantasy baby
Would you remember me and be willing to get lost and make believe
Oh I don't wanna wake up from this dream

The fire time that I met you baby
You know you lit my fire
You lit my fire, you lit my fire
The fire time that I kissed you baby
You know you took me higher
You lit my fire, you lit my fire

Oh I'm feeling you
There's a burden deep inside it's meant for two
I would never break your heart or leave you bruised
Cross my heart and hope to spend my life with you

The fire time that I met you baby
You know you lit my fire

You lit my fire, you lit my fire
The fire time that I kissed you baby
You know you took me higher
You lit my fire, you lit my fire

The fire time that I met you baby
You know you lit my fire
You lit my fire, you lit my fire
The fire time that I kissed you baby
You know you took me higher
You lit my fire, you lit my fire
