Glass eyes shall stare, when tempted by
A smile for the unknown, headrush!
Like the river wild
I see in your eyes
A reflection of Something forbidden unleashed by a lie you inspired

I live in your shadow Your secret
Betrayl I clutch in my hand
Deception was not your intention
Deity of disgust

I was destined to take plague to my grave
Dug by my selfpity
Captured by the thrill of my pray
Young skin so addictive
Faller faster than rain
Can't control this craving
Not that I, feel the need to

I live in your shadow Your secret
Betrayl I clutch in my hand
Deception was not your intention
Deity of disgust
