And all around they have an answer for everything
But they can't bring us closer to our heritage
And we live on the edge of our rural postage
It's a cry for help it's done it's the damage

You're a broken man
Come from a broken home
You deserve much more
Than a piece of none

And If they catch our kind they'll tie us down
And leave only the food of the poorest man
To lead a fruitful life exist for favours
I understand that's it's the field of your creators

You're a broken man
Come from a broken home
You deserve much more
Than a piece of none

And I will stop the world from spinning
I will sow your seeds, will mend the fields
And I will take you into my house, we can run around with our tea cosies on

Broken man, from a broken home
You deserve much more than a piece of none
You're a broken man , come from a broken home
You deserve much more than a piece of none
