You may not remember me
I am the girl with the tear in her eye
And i never expected a call from you
But thinking about it now i guess i did
I guess i did

(CHORUS)

Cos i have all these dreams in my head
Of you and i waking in each others arms
If only i could tell you how i feel
Then i wouldn't have to sit and think about losing you
But it's just a dream i have in my head
The moon is up and im shaking my head
It's been another day of missing you
Of missing you
And on this island theres two of us
Sinking in the sand of our desperate love
Our desperate love

(CHORUS)

If you could see, my heart is bleeding
I'll stay here now and wait for you to show

(CHORUS)

It makes me quite sad
That it's unrequited love
