What I am
Is the sun
And I shine down over everyone

What I am
Is your voice
And I say to you, it's your choice

Honey, you'll be alright
Honey, you'll be alright

What I am
Is the rain
And I soak up all your pain

What I am
Is your soul
Moving around your heart, to keep you warm

Honey, you'll be alright
Honey, you'll be alright
Do what you like
And be good in your life
You could put on your new shoes
And go dancing up on the town
You know what everything's gonna be alright

Honey, you'll be alright
Honey, you'll be alright
Honey, you'll be alright
Honey, you'll be alright
