Could there be a time when we could be friends...
I know that I'm over you
I know it's a risk by leaving your side
It's a feeling my heart can't undo
I don't wanna be as lonely as I feel
But maybe I'm here cos you left me high and dry
The woman who has no heart is me

Chorus
And I'm standing in this fire
The flames are rising high
Could you ever forgive me
I never meant to break your heart
And you never meant to break mine

I was so nervous of waking up alone
But does it mean I'm stronger now?
Life is a lie and honesty is meaningless
Cos you know that I honestly tried
I don't wanna be as angry as you are
Maybe I'm here cos I punished you for so long
The woman who has no heart is me

Chorus
And I'm standing in this fire
The flames are rising high
Could you ever forgive me
I never meant to break your heart
And you never meant to break mine

Make this harder say I'm crazy
But please don't be mean to me cos I really tried
Could you ever forgive me
But I never meant to break your heart
And you never meant to break mine
