"Thinking About Tomorrow"

When I think of all the stupid things I've done
Listen to my heart, I know that I have come Oh so very, very far
And everyone makes mistakes
And I'm better on my own

No more thoughts of you, no more talk of love It's not that's easy to forget, the person that I was So I stand now on my feet and I try to feel alive
And I think of all my worries
And I push them all aside

When it's cold outside, the summer nights have gone and you've picked up your lonely life, the road is carrying on
There is nothing I can do to hurry back to you
'cos my love it is no stranger at finding someone new
