Hello Cosmo didn't mean to go astray
Took life to serious began to slip away
One must conform to expectations of the mass
Need to relax awhile and lie down in the grass

Good day sunshine can I share in your warm glow
Put trust in people that I did not even know
Almost convinced me to regret the things I've done
Need to redeem myself and sit here in the sun

Look at me and what you see is what I am
And I'll be who I wanna be
Look at me and what you see is what I am
And I'll be who I wanna be
Hello Cosmo didn't mean to go astray
Took life to serious began to slip away
One must conform to expectations of the mass
Need to relax awhile and lie down in the grass

Look at me and what you see is what I am
And I'll be who I wanna be
Look at me and what you see is what I am
And I'll be who I wanna be

I'll be who I wanna be
I'll be who I wanna be
I'll be who I wanna be
I'll be who I wanna be
I'll be who I wanna be
