Summertime Clothes

So x4

Sweet summer night and I stripped to my sheets forehead is leaking, and my AC squeaks
A voice from the clock says you're not gonna get tired
My bed is a pool and the walls are on fire Soak with my head in the sink for a while Chills on my neck and it makes me smile
My bones have to move and my skin's gotta breathe
You pick up the phone and I'm so relieved
You slide down the stairs and I hear you scream
And the sun has left us with slippery feet
And I want to walk around with you x2
With you, with you, oh with

It doesn't really matter, i go where i feel hunt for the breeze get a midnight meal
I point out the windows, you point out the parks rip off your sleeves and I ditch my socks Dance to the songs from the cars as they pass weave through the cardboard, smell that trash
Walking around in our summertime clothes
Know where to go when our bodies go
And we'll breathe the dawn in it's morning blues
With the purple yawns, you'll be sleeping soon
And I want to walk around with you x2

When the sun comes out, we'll get wet again x16

Don't cool off, i like your warmth

Let's leave the sound of the heat for the sound of the rain
It's easy to sleep when It wets my brain
You close my rest with a saccharin sheen
Kissing the wind through my window screen
But restless is causeless and I cannot hide
So much on my mind that it spills outside
Do you wanna go stroll down the financial street?
My clothes might get soaked, but the buildings sleep

And there's no one pushing for a place
As we enter at an easy pace
And I want to walk around with you x6
Just you x12
