You know I always need you
Hasn't it been obvious
We get along so well
It's the little things that bother us

Love is not a constant state
It has to ebb and flow
One of us will pull
And the other one they must let go
You let go

Someday we'll understand
The strange ways of woman and man
Someday we'll understand
Someday we'll know

They tell me that you don't look down
When you're on a high tight wire
We never can resist
That's when everything we do backfires

I wanna be with you
I wanna be apart
You wanna stay away
You wanna totally commit your heart
Give your heart

Someday we'll understand
The strange ways of woman and man
Someday we'll understand
Someday we'll know

If there is one thing clear
There's so many regrets
They say the more you dig here
The deeper it gets

Someday we'll understand
The strange ways of woman and man
Someday we'll understand
Someday we'll know
