There's a spy
In the house of love
And he knows what
I'm thinking of
He's making friends
In places high above
In the house of love
I had dreams
They've been laid to waste
I lost the time
And I lost the taste
I need him now
To meet me face to face
In the house of love
In the house of love
Someday I'll find out who it is
And when I do he'll probably go
And the message can only be his
Whatever it says I need to know
There's a spy
He's in every room

Has no name

Only a nom de plume

It's hard to rise

Above the sense of doom

In the house of love

In the house of love

Someday I'll find out who it is

And when I do he'll probably go

And the message can only be his

Whatever it says I need to know

He's got a reason

That he's following me

And why we're on this crazy ride

Can't take the answer

It was meant to be

Maybe that's why

He's still at my side

I will wait

In the house of love

Until I'm sure

What I'm thinking of

And when I do

Some angel up above

Will come on home

To the house of love

Someday I'll find out who it is

And when I do he'll probably go

And the message can only be his

Whatever it says I need to know
