Everywhere, faces I see stare back in despair Trading places with those faces wont go far but you must Hold on, you don't know what you've got, until it's gone And with out fear to disappear, you pay the price for your life

Hopes as high as the mountains, with our face's against the southern wind I'll grasp inside, to stay alive, and face my fears, with the will to live

You must become the change you wish to see in the world
If you want to go far, go together, and blanket the cold

You must become the change you wish to see in the
If you want to go fast, go alone, but never back up and fold

Everyday, you have to face the fight, to find a way Nothings easy, that will please me, as I search for truth and hold on To everything I've found in till I'm gone, and at the end, my life is spent I'm facing death, with the path I went Desolate, This is becoming;

And Beneath the feet of us
This Earth will shake
