Home again, house sittin' again
Riflin' through
Your possessions and stuff
The things that you are ashamed of

Home again, house sittin' again
Lookin' through photos at the back of your draw
The way that you looked
When you were small

You're safe, there's no prowler
No creeper in your lane
It's better than drugs
It's cool to be in your home again

Home again, house sittin' again
It's just a little bit far from the main crowd
Readin' your poems
When you're not around

Home again, house sittin' again
Hospital letters, a clinic on hold
A test that you took
Awaiting results

You're safe, there's no prowler
No creeper in your lane
It's better than drugs
It's cool to be in your home again

You're safe, there's no prowler
No creeper in your lane
It's better than drugs
It's cool to be in your home again

You're safe, there's no prowler
No [Incomprehensible] in your lane
It's better than drugs
It's cool to be in your home again

To be in your home again
To be in your home again
