When I first met you
You were not house trained
A backwards trier
The world's your oyster
Your time is mine
What's yours is mine, all mine

There's no honor among thieves
So we worked together
Varied rich and famous crime
Had your motives, I had mine
For a soul to find
A little piece rub off to mine

Trinkets, memorabilia
Diamonds for the taking
One mans treasure never meant a thing
When I was housebreaking

Took a buckshot landing
My most famous client
Must have lost it in that fall
Came away empty handed
For a soul to find
A little piece rub off to mine

When I first met you
You were not house trained
A backwards trier
The world's your oyster
Your time is mine
What's yours is mine, all mine

When I first met you
I was not house trained
