New brat in town
New brat in town
Who's been found, counting aloud
When there's a new brat in town

Your precious things
You're precious dear
And a chat show host
Went and cut the throat
Of an off-shore engineer

Hey, hey, yeah yeah
Assumed a crucifix
Hey hey, yeah yeah
You are the prompter one

I'll give you half an hour, make a phone call
Pack a suitcase, break your fingers
Shut the door and don't be late
I give you half an hour

New brat in town
Got the bully boys out
And twenty pound of hate

She's an acrobatic kid
High-flyer as a child
Been eaten alive, time after time
You're doing fine
