"The Walls Keep Talking"

There's a house on the hill
Bound to give you a chill
'Cause at night when it's still
They say the walls keep talkin'
The spooks keep walkin'
So the folks in the town
Pass the legend around
Someone lives underground
That's why the walls keep talkin' alright
You hear a scream (Aaaah!)
Out of the night (somebody turn on the light)
You wake from your dream (let me get out of here)
So filled with fright (why I didn't do nothin')
When you walk down that lane
You can hear it so plain
It'll drive you insane
Because the walls keep talkin'
But no one's walkin' around
