baby,i cant stop thinking about you every single day asking maself,y is these struggles always comes on me?

how can it be? r we different than we seems to be?

y am i hurtin? tried ma best to be ur sweetest asian ive realized im nothing to u but being ur burden cursed wit this loneliness that i face on ma own i thought it was unconditional love wut u have told i dreamed spending rest of my life wit u but now ur gone there is so many things left on my list that i havent done makin baby wit u and all those was all in my plan and now number of wishes r all goin back on the ground there were a time, as u hug me u were looking ma eye and tellin me,i wish this moment lasts for rest of ma life i said yes and smiled, u made a grin on ur face so i tightly hugged u getting ma leg around ur waist even i wished that minute to eternally last but now ur dumpin me away,as if i was a trash i can never understand wit ur reason of decision my visions has now broken into pieces wit position we have failed on a mission,sorry for not being perfect sorry for problems,i brought hell on surface ashamed of maself how i acted lyk a child u forgave me on my ego wit ur million dollar smile tell me where should i b without ma girl labeled as noone, getting left alone even from world i kno gotta try to move on nd determine to change but i wanted to tell u dis before u get engaged lyk bible says when u put in work then ull get some return so i gave it that it takes now im waitin 4 ma turn take back nd picture it wut is this love was all about ever since u took off da scene,my life is stressing out even everything i did good was all slanted wit worse no matter wut comes down u gonna b eternally ma first uve decided to take ur path even though if its wrong u shatter me n pieces ur tellin me hang nd b strong life is short its all bout u grip da chance or not so im loadin ma hope in ma glock nd bustin a shot by directin ma thought can brin closer to get us back hope smile,love and dreams trying to put together that prayin above that ull show up oneday from mornin to dark, trust me we can make happy home, present dream to da fact if i could head back in time, ill blaze back at ur crib back in da days when we took off da very first step

Thanks to aznkid
