All along I've been waiting
Distorted views and vision's slowly fading
I foreseen a time that's painfully victorious for you
Proud and dismantled, but far from the truth
I'm taken back, I'm gonna take it back
When I was convinced as I so barely
Found out a way to dig us out of this hole
You're buried alive, but light is shining through

Can you see me?
I'm reaching out here today

So here we go again
With a fist raised to the sky
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive
Well here we go again
Liberated and alive
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive

Case and point, we've all just been dying to live
And words at the stake with a match and tonight it ends
So who am I to say what is right
For you, I'm living my own way of life
Do you give a shit, does anybody care?
To test me from the part of myself that's not here nor there
To she'd the skin that waved across the ground for so long
A shot to the streets, time to press it along

Can you hear me?
Am I speaking clearly today?

So here we go again
With a fist raised to the sky
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive
So here we go again
Liberated and alive
With unrelenting words

And a strong will to survive

Take a look at the face that's gotten you

Down and out, whatcha thinking you're gonna do?

If you don't stop and generate something
More or less gonna make a mess of nothin'
Mortal test, gonna find out what's for sure
Just pull yourself together!

You don't stop thinking and you don't stop running
Pull yourself together, it's a new foundation
You don't stop thinking and you don't stop running
Pull yourself together, time for liberation
You don't stop thinking and you don't stop running
Pull yourself together, it's a new foundation
You don't stop thinking and you don't stop running
Liberateducation!

So here we go again
With a fist raised to the sky
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive
Well here we go again
Liberated and alive
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive

So here we go again
With a fist raised to the sky
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive
Well here we go again
Liberated and alive
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive

All the bags, Johnny doesn't need nothing
Face the facts, man you got to prove something
Spit it out, 'cause it's causing a ruckus
And is this what could make amends?

So here we go again
With a fist raised to the sky
With unrelenting words
And a strong will to survive
