You say you listen but you never do
You say we're fine but I'm in this too
You fall asleep and I'm still awake
I wish you would understand

You're like a rock that I would like to break
Or like a cocktail that I have to shake
You make me sad when I'm happy
I wish you could understand

CH:

Still I go weak when you just look at me (so don't look at me)

You're such a creep but still you make me feel (so don't make me feel)

Let me love I'm impatient

Or cut me loose and let me be free

Cause you're the one who's holding the key

I know you love me but it feels untrue
Sometimes a wall between me and you
Am I a dreamer or am I a fool
I've got a thing about you

CH (x2)

I'm torn apart so

Stop dragging my heart around

Oh, how I wish that you would understand

CH x2

Cause you're the one who's holding the key
