Listen up 'cause I gotta tell you
The way it is won't last the night trough Done it all to make it happy, how much does it take?
I'm not saying that I won't give up now
But you're acting out of scene you once saw
And the drama's only getting deeper
Do you like that feeling?

refrain2:

Now I'm caught inside
Out of breath now
I'll be crushed alive
My heart begins to feel the pressure

refrain:

Stressed out, here's the situation
Stressed out, with all the aggravation
Calm down, until the complication
This is not my fault

Stressed out, another confrontation
Stressed out, for your information
I'm out, in need of liberation
This is not my fault

Riding fast on your roller coaster
You'll be screaming till the ride is over
Can't we skip to the happy ending
If I have no way
I would never let the flames get higher
Fighting back only fans the fire
Can't we skip to the happy ending
I don't know what to say

refrain2

refrain

Bringing me down, what's with that I don't need this now
Stressed out (Stressed out) , come around

(come around) Calm down, this is not my fault

Here we are and the cards are falling
Here we are and no point in stalling
Should you try picking up the pieces
Or leave them on the floor refrain (2x)
