My fever goes deeper
It rises, surprises
Iâ€™m leaving the light on
Donâ€™t feel no shame
Iâ€™ve watched you shower
But Iâ€™m so sorry I donâ€™t know your name

The wedding bells
The wishing wells
Iâ€™m sorry, not for me
No need to confess
The passion I possess
If thatâ€™s not alright
Well youâ€™re not my type
I couldnâ€™t care less

Itâ€™s insatiable
Donâ€™t think, give in
Lose your control

I used you, abused you

You canâ€™t think what to do
You know youâ€™re a big boy
Get over it
Maybe itâ€™s your turn
Learn to forgive, and learn to forget

Itâ€™s insatiable
Donâ€™t think, give in
Lose your control

My fever goes deeper
I'm cooler than ether
It's not up to you, to melt my veneer
The heat that I need's
Supplied everytime that you're near
That you are near

That you are near
