One place for all this distance
We've got so displaced
The life that you've always wanted
A thousand miles away

Like no man's like an architect
Like moving in one place
We can live forever
We could fade away

Borrowed time and missing faces
No home in a million places
I don't want a change of pace
I can't do anything else

Borrowed time and missing faces
No home in a million places
I don't want a change of pace
I can't do anything else

Now I have your attention
It's just a matter of time
Till you question what I'm saying
Make me justify

Every word in every line
That does not seem to fit
But the meaning's not so important
As long as you mean it

Borrowed time and missing faces
No home in a million places
I don't want a change of pace
I can't do anything else

Borrowed time and missing faces
No home in a million places
I don't want a change of pace
I can't do anything else

The life that I wanted
Is frozen in motion

The life that I wanted
Is frozen in motion

Borrowed time and missing faces
No home in a million places
I don't want a change of pace
I can't do anything else

Borrowed time and missing faces
No home in a million places
I don't want a change of pace

I can't do anything else
I can't do anything else
I can't do anything else
