You number my wanderings
You keep my tears in a bottle
It don't matter where I go
Your love will surely follow
I've tried and tried I've tried
To make it on my own
I've said just give me one more day
I've tried and tried I've tried
To make it on my own
I've said that this could be the way
Your love found me
Now I am free
Your love found me
Now I am free
I've come to the end of myself to find
You're always and forever
Gonna be the way
You keep my feet from being caught
You make my path straight before me
It don't matter where I go
Your love will surely follow
I've come to the end of myself to find
You are all you are all
You are all the things I need
