Maybe when I wake tomorrow we'll all be free
Maybe we can learn to live in harmony
Maybe black and white and maybe baby
You and me
Maybe when I wake tomorrow
The world will be okay
Maybe when I wake tomorrow
Life will be the same
Maybe when I wake tomorrow baby maybe
Don't you think it's time
We worked it out?
Don't you think it's time we learned?
Let's go dancing tonight
Let's go loving this life
Let's go singing tonight
Cause tonight's a gift
So don't you let it pass you by
I've been thinking it's been a while
Since I said I love ya
Been thinking it's been a while
Since you said I love you too
I been thinking maybe it's high time
I said it to you
Cause one day when I look around
I hope I'll be seeing you
And all the things and all the things in between
