"Worth Waiting For"

Sitting in the afternoon sun
Waiting for you to come
Sitting in the afternoon shade
Waiting for you to pass me by
Can I just say I'm so glad you came my way
Can I just say I'm so glad
That you're here to stay
Can I just say I'm so glad
You're never ever gonna walk away
I've found something worth Waiting for I've found something worth Fighting for I've found something worth Living for I've found something worth Dying for Driving in my car to work today
Thinking of you want to see you're face
When It's over driving home again
Missing you can't get you out of my head
