Now and again,
I remember how life was back then, oh.
When I held you close to me,
wrapped up in your arms,
so free.

Even when I'm sad,
you play around in my head.
And I just have to smile.
Your memory is loving me.

Somewhere beyond ev'rything we know,
time will flow in a place we'll go.
Someday we'll find truth and peace of mind
and I'll still love you then.

Oh, then we will see about ev'ry possibility for us.

Then forever will be ours.
We will know the power of love.

True love never leaves and in my heart I believe.
And we don't say goodbye.
We'll meet again
and I'll love you then.

Somewhere beyond ev'rything we know,
time will flow in a place we'll go.
Someday we'll find truth and peace of mind
and I'll still love you then.

And I'll still love you then.
