I know you have no place left to go I'm your last escape
So I've been told you get paranoid driking on your own

I've been repalced by you before
I'm just another corpse along your road
No regretful eyes can win my sympathy this time

Halo halo, above your head today
Saying you're a changed man now
Halo halo, above your head today
Feels like sand in my eye

Giving every promise bitter ends disappointment walks
With you my friend I'm not the only one you hurt a dozen
Times or more, regretful eyes can't win my sympathy this time

Halo halo, above your head today
Saying your're a changed man now
Halo halo, above your head today
Feels like sand in my eye
