Just why I stayed around when all I found was a heartache
I believed your every word
Didn't know the hurt and pain that you'd make
But why did it take so long
At last now I've seen the light
I found the heart to say

No more the fool who went around waiting
For you to bring me down
Those days are gone now
No more the nights lying awake crying
And waiting for the day to break
No more the sound as my dreams fall and hit the Ground while I wait around no more the fool

You thought I'd break then you were wrong
That I won't see what's going on but I knew Here I am i'm alive and you will see I'll survive without you
And I won't be the one who comes running
It ain't like it used to be
Here's your turn to run to me

Chorus

All the nights I waited for you to call
I waited for a sign that you would stay
But it's so clear you didn't care at all
