You've made me happy
You've made me blue
You've made the problems
And we've seen them thru
I remember when things will fall

I'm trying again to hold on to the truth
But the more that I give
The more that I loose
I feel I'm chasing all far the time

Only the river can feel how the earth moves inside
And only the mountains can see
Where the clouds go at night
Only you can make me cry

All what the sun brings
The start of a new day
And each time it rises
Each time I say
Today is the day that I draw the line

You move me to laughter
You move me to tears
And you've seen the changes in all these years
But I feel I'm chasing all far the time

Only the river can feel how the earth moves inside
And only the mountains can see
Where the clouds go at night
Only you can make me cry

If I had the courage
We could carry on
But I've had enough

Only the river can feel how the earth moves inside
And only the mountains can see
Where the clouds go at night
Only you can make me cry
