Here's a story I hope,
you'll like.
It's the one about the girl riding on her bike.
I know,
It's a tired old tale,
but it still rings true.

She could never be rude, or unkind.
But a sad song played at the back of her mind
Oh-Ohh,
Can someone show me a different day,
To take me away?

(Chorus)
Take me out of the woods.
Great Big World
You know I'm wanting for you.
(You know I'm wanting for you)

They tell me goodies make the woods,
go 'round.
And every day they fix the tea to wash 'em down
You know,
If you spin your wheels everything's okay.

There's a girl who's been on,
my mind.
She was never one who ever cared to to color in the lines.
Oh-ohh,
Did you know that this girl looks a lot like me?

(Chorus)
Take me out of the woods.
Great Big World
You know I'm wanting for you.

You know I'm wanting for you.
You know I'm waiting for you.
You know I'm wanting for you...
