Hold me, I'm crying, I'm walking away from what's safe today

Why is it so hard to let go when it's the right thing to do

Why am I so scared to face the uncertainty

False is preferred over reality

I'm just one heartbeat away

Now I am playing with danger

I am walking astray

Still I am some kind of angel

Some kind of angel to you

Hate me, don't love me, don't beg me, don't ask me to stay

Blame me and judge me, don't forgive me, don't make me your prey

'cause I'm not a treasure to cling and hold on to

I'm like a bird in a cage, let me fly away

Please just let me fly away

I'm just one heartbeat away

Now I am playing with danger

I am walking astray

Still I am some kind of angel

Some kind of angel to you

Hear my words, I don't wanna be here

Hear my words, I don't wanna be here, oh no
