I'm running out of time in this confusing place I need somewhere to hide, a place where I feel safe And I know every day someone asks the same questions I do now and I have to believe that I'll find what I'm looking for

But I'm lonely and confused, wish I knew which road to take
I am careful, it's my life at stake Always waiting for the time when I'll lose my patience looking everywhere to find my golden truth

Every day is a piece in the puzzle of life every colour and shape, that's how I'll keep my faith always looking for this thing I don't know what is will I find this which is mine, in my struggle against time

I'm running out of luck, it's tempting to play safe And every choice that I make comes with consequences I will never have to take but I'm scared and confused, wish I knew which way to walk wish I knew when to stay calm, when to talk always wondering, when will I lose my patience looking everywhere to find my golden truth
