I've been lyin' here thinkin' over old times
Old friends of your-ours, old friends of mi-ine
At least half of those parts
Have been broken in two

Sometimes love just ain't strong enough
Some give in and some give up
And it started me thinkin'
What would I do without you

Oh-oh, hold me in your sweet lovin' ar-arms
Take me to where it's safe and war-ar-arm
Hold me, just a little longer tonight

People take love for a foolish thing
Some tear it dow-own, some give it wings
And I'd like to thi-ink
That we could fly-y away, yeah

You always ha-ave, say you always wi-ill
Stand by me baby, till the world stands still
Say you will, say it tonight
Say-ay you wi-i-ill

Woh-oh-oh-oh-oh, hold me in your sweet lovin' ar-arms
Take me to where it's safe and war-ar-arm
Hold me, just a little longer tonight

Mmm-mm-mm, hold me in your sweet lovin' ar-arms
Take me to where it's safe and war-ar-am
Hold me, just a little longer tonight

Hold me (say that you will)
Just a little longer toni-ight
Hold me (do it tonight)
Just a little longer tonight [fade]
