Oh, I'm lovin' what I see
Each time you smile at me
I love the look
Of what you're thi-inki-ing
I-I know how it feels to fly
I'm glowin' like the sky
That's on fire
As the su-un is si-inking

Oh... you set my dreams to music
As you spend the whole night
Making them come true
And in my who-ole life
I have never had a dream
As sweet as you

No one else I ever knew
Could touch me quite like you

Or say as much
Without a wor-ord
Now-ow lo-ove,
I'm hoping you can see
The song inside of me
That holds more love
Than any so-ong you've hear-ear'd now

Oh - you set my dreams to music
As you spend the whole night
Making them come true
And in my who-ole life
I have never had a dream
As sweet as you

In my who-ole life
I have never had a dream
As sweet as you-ou
